

STUDY TOUR REPORT ONGOING CLIMATE CHANGE ADAPTATION AND MITIGATION

04/06/2017 SOUTH REGION

On 4 June 2017 Zanzibar climate change alliance (ZACCA) conducted the study tours in South Region. This tour it was include four villages like Jozani, Charawe, and Bwejuu and muyuni C. total 30 participants from ZACCA was 3 participants, Journalist was 13 from different station, JECA representative 3 and villagers 11. the aim of this tours are staff and partners to gain knowledge about climate change adaptation and mitigation on practical, exchange knowledge about climate change and visit project implementation site. And to hands-on experience, the study tours expose participants to new approaches, practices and encourage the exchange of knowledge, skills and lessons learnt to better perform their work afterwards and facilitate the replication of successful models.

(Photo during the Mangrove plantation at Jozani area South Unguja)

(Water infrastructure at Charawe Village to support Agriculture)

(Woman from Muyuni C South Unguja, use local cooker that use many firewood)

(Villagers use efficiency cooking stove as way of local climate change local mitigation)